wusftv America in Primetime

What makes primetime TV tick?

This series cracks the code.

Each episode focuses on enduring character archetypes, including the independent woman, the man of the house, the misfit, and the crusader.

Airs Saturdays at 8 p.m.,
beginning February 4

Super Bowl Sunday?

We love it, too, but here's a suggestion. Record the game, skip the commercials, and watch some great classic movies instead. Our kick-off starts at 5 p.m.

Meet the players:

The Strange Love of Martha Ivers (1946)

Barbara Stanwyck and Van Heflin are called for unnecessary roughness in a brutal and unsportsmanlike display. 5 p.m.

To Have and Have Not (1944)

With only seconds remaining, Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall make a bold Hail Mary play for the French Resistance on Nazi-controlled Martinique. 7 p.m.

Anastasia (1956) The pretender to the Russian throne is off-sides and out of bounds in a surprising move by Ingrid Bergman and Yul Brynner. 8:45 p.m.

Royal Wedding (1951)

Talk about fancy footwork! Fred Astaire and Jane Powell dominate the romantic gridiron in a heart-warming team effort. 10:30 p.m.

Glacier Park's Night of the Grizzlies investigates the deaths of two women and the severe mauling of one man in 1967 in Glacier National Park. This tragic encounter influenced the fate of all grizzly bears in the continental United States. The true story of that night is finally told. Airs Thursday, February 2, at 10 p.m.

Nova: Ice Age Death Trap Racing against time and developers, archaeologists uncover a unique site in the Rockies, packed with the astonishingly preserved bones of mammoths, mastodons and other extinct beasts. Their work opens an amazing window on a vanished world of Ice Age giants. Airs Sunday, February 12, at 8 p.m.

In Rudy Maxa's World: Escape to French Polynesia the award-winning travel journalist Rudy Maxa ventures to Tahiti, Bora Bora, and other islands in French Polynesia to experience their rich sea life, translucent waters and vibrant culture. Featuring brilliant underwater and aerial photography. Airs Monday, February 13, at 8 p.m.
