National Memorial Day Concert 2017

Join co-hosts Laurence Fishburne and Joe Mantegna for the 28th annual broadcast of this night of remembrance
honoring the service and sacrifice of our men and women in uniform, their families at home and all those who have given their lives for our country.

Airs Monday, May 29, 8 p.m.

Nature's Miracle Orphans This observational documentary series meets animals with extraordinary survival stories, and follows the people determined to help them get back to a life in the wild, including Moyo, the baby elephant separated from his mother when he was swept down a river. Airs Thursdays, 10 p.m., beginning May 4.

Join the Tiger Family on their way to Grandpere's house in Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood: Tiger Family Trip. Airs on WUSF Kids Monday, May 8, 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., with additional broadcasts on Wednesday, May 10 and Friday, May 12.

American Experience "The Great War" tells the complex story of World War I through the voices of nurses, journalists, aviators and the American troops known as "doughboys." The series explores the experiences of those whose participation in the war has been largely forgotten. Airs Sundays, 9 p.m., beginning May 14.

Flying to the Ends of the Earth Former Royal Marine Arthur Williams did not let the car crash that left him paralyzed deter his passion for flying. Williams uses a small prop plane to get access to some of the planet's most remote places in this three-part series. Airs Wednesdays, 9 p.m., beginning May 31.

MARTIN CLUNES ISLANDS of AUSTRALIA

In this three-part series, Doc Martin star Martin Clunes embarks upon a fascinating journey through 16 of Australia's 8,000 islands. Characterized by their resourceful inhabitants, exotic animals, and unique marine environments, these islands represent a true cross-section of Australia's diverse people, terrain, and history.
